“ This is the quickest and easiest solution I've ever used. Bravo can set you up with your own company branded website for your products—it is the best thing ever. My local customers get to see what I have for sale or I can ship to anyone in the country. You can list your items on Buya.com, company branded website, and eBay all at the same time. And, when you sell your item on any of these sites, Bravo will automatically take it off the other sites. Bravo is also the best for listing items on eBay seamlessly. Quick and easy. ”
